"Trademark poignant lyricism and impeccable guitar work-10 out of 10" - Music Connection, Los Angeles

"Cockburn is an astonishing musician, performer, songwriter and political activist" – International Times

"One of our most important artists of the past five, now almost six, decades." - Glide Magazine

5 stars - "This is an album you need to hear." - Music Riot

WATERDOWN, ON – Universally-acclaimed singer/songwriter/guitarist Bruce Cockburn continues his worldwide tour in support of his latest album, O Sun O Moon, with the upcoming announcement of a new series of dates in the U.S. throughout the month of November. The new dates will be announced May 6th, with tickets going on sale May 10th.

In other Bruce Cockburn news, the master musician will be getting yet another new Honorary Doctorate of Music Degree on June 14. More information on that here: <https://www.wlu.ca/news/news-releases/2024/march/music-legend-bruce-cockburn-former-nhl-star-mike-richter-among-honorary-degree-recipients.html>

The legendary singer/songwriter/guitarist, whose palette of honors and awards includes 13 Canadian JUNO wins, two Hall of Fame inductions, countless honorary Doctorates, Officer of The Order of Canada and recent inductee into Canada's Walk of Fame spanning a 50+ year career, also recently appeared on the National Public Radio performance show, "Mountain Stage," that began airing March 29th. Recorded on February 1st at the Leshar Center for the Arts in Walnut Creek, California, Cockburn was joined on stage that night by Colin Hay, Ramblin' Jack Elliott, Chuck Prophet & the Make Out Quartet and The Lucky Valentines. "Mountain Stage" with host Kathy Mattea airs on over 260 NPR Stations nationwide.

Bruce Cockburn's most-recent album, O Sun O Moon, has generated world-wide acclaim and radio airplay. He's enjoyed an illustrious career shaped by politics, spirituality, and musical diversity. His remarkable journey has seen him embrace folk, jazz, rock, and worldbeat styles while earning high praise as a prolific, inspired songwriter and accomplished guitarist. He remains deeply respected for his activism and humanist song lyrics that thread throughout his career. On all his albums Cockburn has deftly captured the joy, pain, fear, and faith of human experience in song.
